"THE RECESSION IS OVER!"

That statement was recently made by Professor Edward Trubac, an economist from Notre Dame's business school whose judgement I have learned to trust. He quotes the economic indicators as moving generally in a positive direction, but not in a continuous pattern. As recovery occurs he predicts that there will be periods of growth, followed by periods of no growth or even negative growth, but the general trend will be upward. His prediction is that we should expect G.N.P. growth of about 2% annual rate.

Our business, too, seems to be improving. March was a spectacular month for us, only to be followed by relatively slow revenues in April. May again looks like a good month. So I suppose we too should expect that as the recovery continues, we will have good months followed by slow months.

We do, however, expect that the trend toward an improving economy is already underway. It is the pattern of the broadcast industry that our business changes seem to precede changes being noticed in the marketplace in general. Let us hope that our improving business indicates that the local economy will soon improve.

During this period of recession, which is now approximately two years old, I am most pleased with the cooperation that has been demonstrated by our entire staff in controlling expenses. It is only through the very successful campaign of expense control that we have been able to adjust to this economic reality. To those who have suffered hardship during this time, as a sacrifice to the success of the company, I wish to extend my sincere and profound thanks. As we gradually recover from this recession, and attempt to resume more normal growth, your continuing help is needed.

Many thanks to all for your excellent cooperation during these most difficult times.

GOLDEN DOME PRODUCTIONS

Jon O'Sullivan and Chuck Huffman journeyed to Jerusalem in April to work on the production of Life Choices series "Religions of the Book." This four part series examines the teachings of the three great religions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam regarding holy places and pilgrimage, women serving religion, the poor and war and peace issues.

Production captured the sights and sounds of holy places, religious ritual and worship and interviews with people like the Mufti of Jerusalem, Palestinian leaders and other religious notables. Footage of Tantur was also shot for the sesquicentennial video for the University of Notre Dame. Tantur is part of the foreign

ANNIVERSARIES

There have been a lot of questions regarding the accuracy of the anniversaries listed in Spectrum. In the past, only full-time years were reflected in anniversary dates. We are updating our records to reflect everyone's original hire date. For employees who began part-time and are now full-time, the anniversary date and years of employment will include your part-time years. If you have any questions, or believe an error has been made in your anniversary date, contact Human Resources.

AWARD WINNERS

Mark Durocher has been awarded the Distinguished Service Award by the South Bend Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycees) for the year 1990-91 for the South Bend Chapter. Mark received this award for his support of the Just Kuwaiting support group. With Mark's help, the group raised over $25,000 for the needs of many service men and women in the Michiana area.

Mark Kelly has received the M-K award which was created by the Zionettes, an Elkhart-based, nationally known gospel singing group, to recognize people who make what the group considers significant contributions to the community. This is the first year of the award and was named after Mark and another recipient, grocery store owner Mark Kennel.

Congratulations!

TODAY'S CATHOLIC

Around the Diocese

By Peter J. Danch

PLYMOUTH — When Cynthia and Bryan Casper of St. Michael Church sit with their three children to teach them the devotional prayers of the Rosary, the makeup of the family Rosary is vividly illustrated.

It's made up of golf balls entirely, each golf ball painted light blue. A large size crucifix heads the Rosary.

The inspiration for this giant size family Rosary was Father David Voors, pastor of St. Michael Church. Casper said, "During the Medjugorje Conference last June at the University of Notre Dame, Father Voors gave an inspirational homily that moved my family and me.

"Father Voors spoke about his childhood with the Rosary and the great impact it has had on his life.

"He talked about the family Rosary that his parents had which had beads as large as walnuts," Casper said.

Casper drilled the holes, Cynthia and the kids painted the balls and put them together.

Eight named 'commended' students at St. Joseph

SOUTH BEND — Eight St. Joseph's High School seniors have been named Commended Students in the National Merit Scholarship Program. They are Michael K. Ameriks, Paul A. Bieschke, Claire M. Hannes, Malaika N. Kim, Thomas B. Lopez, Gregory S. Matz, Kaycee M. Misiewicz, and Raymond F. Patnode.

Commended Students have shown exceptional academic promise by placing among the top five percent of more than one million program entrants.

Individuals are welcome to walk as well. Each walker who turns in $1.50 or more by the deadline will receive a headset radio.

The first 500 walkers who register at noon Oct. 15 at Potawatomi Park will receive a commemorative T-Shirt courtesy of Radio Station WYEZ of South Bend-Ekhart and also a sport squeeze hotwater bottle from NIPSCO. Pepsi Cola Bottlers of South Bend will have products available at checkpoints along the route and at the finish line. — EJD

Bishop Luers students commended by Merit unit

FORT WAYNE — Five students of Bishop Luers High School placed among the top five percent and were named commended students in the 1992 National Merit Scholarship program. They are Ben Hall, Elizabeth Hull, Sean Lamborne, Julie Needler and Catherine Noonan.

Student discovers her connection is deeper to Saint Mary's College

By HOWARD DUKES
Tribune Staff Writer

SOUTH BEND

Rebecca Regalado always felt she had a connection with Saint Mary's College.

The graduating senior from LaPorte said it wasn't love at first sight, but it was close.

"It was the only college I applied to, and when I came to visit the college, I knew that I wanted to come here," Regalado said.

She had the same connection to the college that many women feel toward small women's schools like Saint Mary's.

"I loved that it was a small, close-knit college," she said. "I liked the (small) class size, and they are all so friendly and open around here."

A few weeks before Regalado's graduation, she learned that she had a deeper connection to Saint Mary's.

Regalado's grandmother, Ruth Bennett-Wilbe was an avid genealogist who traveled all over the country gathering information about ancestors. When Bennett-Wilbe died in 2001, she left the fruit of her labors — a trove of the family's history — with her daughter, Judy Regalado.

Judy Regalado said was going through these files when she discovered an interesting fact — an ancestor once owned a building that she sold to the University of Notre Dame back in 1854.

The ancestor, Charlotte Bennett-Sisson, is Rebecca Regalado's great-great-great aunt. Bennett-Sisson sold a house to the Rev. Edward Sorin, Notre Dame's founding father. He moved it to Saint Mary's campus.

The house is no longer there, but Rebecca Regalado is happy she learned of its existence and the house's connection to her family.

Ironically, even though Bennett-Wilbe was still alive when her granddaughter decided to attend Saint Mary's, she never mentioned anything about the house.

Judy Regalado believes her mother was probably reluctant to mention it because she might have thought she had misplaced the information.

"She was really excited about (Rebecca's decision to attend Saint Mary's)," Judy Regalado said.

Since Judy Regalado found the documents, two other family members said Bennett-Wilbe mentioned the connection to them.

Rebecca Regalado said it would have been nice to have known about the connection earlier, but that's not as important as knowing.

"To be able to connect something from my past to the college is exciting," she said.

The last three become joint protagonists of Boylan's continuation worthy, and it comes as no surprise that they ultimately prosper.

15. Burnright, Nora Roberts

Plum debut

Moi learns an important lesson: "Chloe jeans and Alpha-Beta peels don't make the nasty things go away. You have to live with the nasty things forever, like Liza Minnelli does."

She soon bounces back and moves onto the next man. And the next, and the next. Along the way, her adventures include getting dumped again, having it out with her new paramour's wife, and chasing a socialite named Jazz who's the subject of a terribly overdue article at work.

The novel is amusing and light-hearted, and Sykes — a contributing editor at Vogue who has written plenty about high society — is positioned nicely to give something of an insider's view.

Some of the most ridiculous and funny lines in the book are about outlandish social aspirations, such as "getting an A.T.M." In socialite parlance, that translates into getting a rich boyfriend.

The Baltimore Sun

Although the five stories in E. L. Doctorow's new collection, "Sweet Land Stories," are far more conventional in form than his prize-winning novels "Ragtime," "Billy Bathgate" or "World's Fair," the characters who animate them are anything but conventional. They are strangers in a strange and hostile land, the "sweet" of the title being a reflex of Doctorow's ingrained irony.

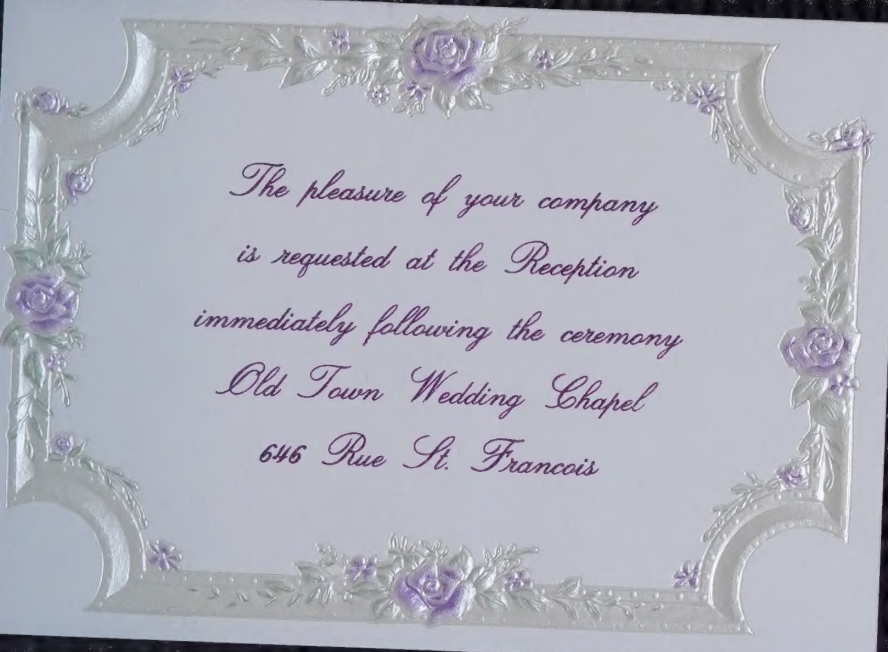

While there is a measure of authentic sweetness in these stories, it is in the characters themselves, a touch of naivete and hopefulness who has shown any fondness for him. The narrator in "Baby Wilson" is so infatuated with his girlfriend that he talks himself into believing "her kookiness was mystical" but stops just short of abetting her kidnapping of an infant.

The characters' good intentions, however delusional, are a foil that illuminates the failures of America's mission to help "the tired, the poor, the huddled masses."

Yet Doctorow's social and political critique is most pointed in the final story, "Child, Dead, in the Rose Garden."

The body of a 6-year-old boy is discovered under some folding chairs on the White House grounds on the morning after an awards ceremony. The boy has died of natural causes. The placement of his body and the almost inconceivable breach of security involved were meant as a political statement. But, as the FBI agent as-

*On our 50th Wedding Anniversary
To you my children and grandchildren, I must say
It isn't us you should be honoring today
You have filled our life and our hearts with happiness and joy
We wish to thank you for sharing and caring Look to each other and shake their hand, a hug, a kiss would be just grand
You are the ones to be honored today
In your Dad's famous words, I'll end with More Fun! More Fun!*

Anyone who met Richard Salomon would probably know something about his quiet demeanor, his fair reporting skills and his dry sense of humor.

But one tale many might not now know showed a rebellious side to the Plymouth newsman who died Friday in his home at the age of 77.

"Every morning we'd go on the rounds at the police station to see if anything was going on," said former Tribune staff writer Harold Lowe, a friend of Salomon's. Lowe worked at the Plymouth News in Plymouth when Salomon was with The Tribune

Burial will follow in Riverview Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today in the funeral home.

God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be, He closed His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me." In tears we saw you sinking, We watched you fade away, Our hearts were almost broken, You fought so hard to stay. But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully, free from pain, We would not wish you back to suffer that again. So treasure her, Lord, In your garden of rest, For here on earth she was one of the best.

The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of his friend. He referred to the dates on his tombstone, from the beginning to the end. He noted that first came the date of his birth, and spoke of the second with tears, but he said that what mattered most of all was the dash between those years. For that dash represents all the time that he spent alive on Earth, and now only those who loved him know what that little line is worth; For it matters not, how much we own; the cars, the house, the cash. What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash. So think about this long and hard, are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left, (You could be at dash mid-range). If we could just slow down enough to consider what's real, and always try to understand the way other people feel. And be less quick to anger, and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before. If we treat each other with respect, and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash, might only last a little while. So when your eulogy is being read, with life's actions to rehash... would you be pleased with the things they say about how you spent your dash?

A death has occurred and everything is changed by this event. We are painfully aware that life can never be the same again, that yesterday is over, that relationships once rich have ended. But there is another way to look upon this truth. If life went on the same without the presence of the one who has died, we could only conclude that the life we here celebrate made no contribution, filled no space, meant nothing. The fact that this individual left behind a place that cannot be filled is a high tribute to this individual. Life can be the same after a trinket has been lost, but never after the loss of a treasure.

Jesse B. Wood

Oct. 1, 1910 – May 12, 2004

Jesse Bert Wood, 93, went home to Jesus on Wednesday, May 12, in Memorial Hospital, South Bend, Ind.

He was the last surviving child of John Pugh and Sarah Milford Wood. He was born in Lauderdale County, Ala., Oct. 1, 1910. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers and four sisters.

On Feb. 4, 1933, in Lauderdale County, Ala., he was married to Lucy Lutell Robertson, who passed away Dec. 2, 1999. Their union resulted in five children, three of whom preceded him in death, Patty Jo Bryan, Aug. 11, 1973, Harold Don Wood, Nov. 4, 1993, and Verdie Fay Wood, Aug. 29, 2001.

Surviving are a son, Dan H. Wood (Kay) of South Bend; daughter, Sarah F. Porretta of Royal Oak, Mich.; 14 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Grandpa came to Indiana in July 1950 and got a job on the first day at the Bendix Corporation where he worked for 22 years, until he retired as an inspector in the airplane strut department. He enjoyed life to the fullest and was admired by all. Some of his passions were his vegetable garden, his family and his church. He enjoyed his daily walks, talking to his friends and family, and making holiday candy. He was a friend to everyone he met. Grandpa will be missed by all.

Relatives and friends will be received today, May 14, from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. in the Chapel Hill Funeral Home, 10776 McKinley Highway, Osceola, Ind. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, May 15, with Rev. Kenneth H. Mendenhall of United Pentecostal Church officiating. Friends may call one hour before services. Burial will be at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens. His grandsons will be pallbearers.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to United Pentecostal Church, 4609 S. Ironwood Road, South Bend, IN 46614.

The following poem reflects his philosophy of life:

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of his friend. He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning...to the end.

He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the second with tears, but he said that what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth, and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own; The cars, the house, the cash. What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard, are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left. (You could be at dash mid-range.)

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and what's real, and always try to understand the way that other people feel.

And be less quick to anger, and show appreciation more, and love the people in our lives like we never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect, and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So when your eulogy is being read with your life's actions to rehash...would you be pleased with the things they say about how you spent your dash?

the documentary have been challenged; and getting send-ups of sacred art off of the logos of the movie "The Last Supper" and the House of Blues nightclub chain.

Donohue also takes credit for starting the boycott against the Walt Disney Co. because of "Priest."

"I'm glad that the Southern Baptists used against Dukakis in the election," Donohue said. "The White House was in constant contact with me for about six months prior to the election."

Today, though, partisan politics is not Donohue's first interest, but the Catholic Church.

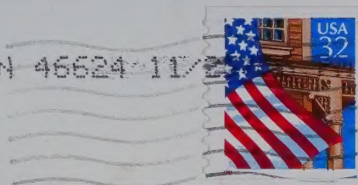

"I've told rich people since I've been in this organization that if you like what I'm doing and you want to give money, that's fine, we'll be glad to take it. But I don't take money from people who want to steer us. If you have an agenda, forget it," he said.

"I like the Joe Six-Pack. I like the rank and file. I like the pizza and beer crowd. It's what I relate to. They're the people I know, it's the people I trust, the people who give us the money and fight for what is necessary without trying to orchestrate us to serve partisan agendas."

But the fight to protect the church is not Donohue's alone. The Catholic League has 300,000 members, and he maintains that more Catholics should get involved when they see anti-Catholic bias.

"Often there's a lazy attitude on the part of Catholics to the extent that they say, 'Well, I'm doing OK on my job. I haven't been dis-

THURMAN O.
'PECK' BIDDLE

Thurman Oliver "Peck" Biddle, 81, Williamsport, died at the home of his daughter in Williamsport at 3:32 p.m. on Sunday, February 24, 2004.

Born in Green Hill on December 4, 1922, he was the son of the late Oliver and Mae (Williams) Biddle.

He attended Attica High School. He had lived in Foster and Covington before moving to Williamsport in 1985.

Peck was married to Esther Genive Mettee on October 18, 1941 in Covington. She preceded him in death on December 3, 1995.

Surviving are: a son, Gary (Darlene) Biddle of Greencastle; four daughters, Sherry Davis of Veedersburg, Kerri Mitchell of Covington, Terri (Ronnie) Stevens and Jerri (Larry) Williams, both of Williamsport; five brothers, Ivan Biddle and Louis Biddle, both of South Bend, Bill Biddle of Attica, Rupert Biddle of St. Louis, Mo., and Frank Biddle of Texas; a sister, Beulah (Raymond) Ratnaude of South Bend; 13 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and a great-great-grandson. He was also preceded in death by two sisters, Vera Cooper and Louise Talbott and twin granddaughters.

Peck served in the U.S. Army during World War II, seeing action in the Normandy campaign.

He formerly worked for the Veedersburg Brick Co. for many years, until its closing and had worked for the V.A. Hospital in Danville, Ill., retiring in 1984.

He was a member of Stone Bluff United Methodist Church and a life member of VFW Post #3318 of Attica.

Visitation was Tuesday at Maus Funeral Home, Attica. Service there on Wednesday with Pastor Stanley Hicks officiating. Interment, with military graveside rites, at V.A. National Cemetery, Danville, Ill.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Stone Bluff United Methodist Church.

Those Ladies really are good cooks.

Love to you both
Bill & Emma

Come to Rest

God saw you getting weary,
He did what He thought best;
He put His arms around you and said, "Come and rest."

He opened up His golden gates,
on that heartbreaking day,
and with His arms around you,
you gently slipped away.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
a part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven.
A time for sowing,
a time for reaping;
A time for sharing,
a time for caring.
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
For everything You do remains forever.

Going Home. . .

Birds in Flight symbolizes the end of a Christian life. One bird is shown leaving the flock and "going home" to his final reward. The three remaining birds continue their journey through life with peace of mind, knowing their lost loved one is now in God's hands.

Aunt Beulah,

I thought I would send you this copy of our family history. Hope you can read my writing. I'm not a very good writer.

Hope you all have a very nice Holiday. Mom & Dad are spending the Holidays here in Florida with us. We are very happy to have them here with us. It will really make any Holiday brighter since we have no other family here.

Take care & send us a note when you can. Tell all we said Hi.

Love,

Ivan J. Biddle

April 7, 1932 - Sept. 16, 2010

SOUTH BEND - Ivan J. Biddle, 78, residing in South Bend, passed away at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, September 16, 2010, in Healthwin Specialized Care in South Bend. Ivan was born April 7, 1932, in Attica, IN, to Oliver George and Mae Juanita (Williams) Biddle. Ivan served his country honorably in the Army during the Korean Conflict. Following his military service he went to work at McDonald Studio as a wedding photographer and printer until retiring in 2002. On Dec. 31, 1967, in Lakeville United Methodist Church, Ivan married the former Marilyn "Mary Jo" Kemble, who survives. The Biddles were longtime members of Central United Methodist Church where Ivan sang in the choir. In addition to his loving wife, Mary Jo, Ivan is survived by two daughters, Elizabeth Ann (Richard Eaton) Biddle of South Bend and Kathleen Joy (Fernando) Biddle Echiverri of Honolulu, HI; four grandchildren, Silver Echiverri, Kelly Ann Leyba, Ashley Eaton and Danielle Eaton; and one great-granddaughter, Emma Marie. He is also survived by one sister, Beulah (Raymond) Patnaude of South Bend; two brothers, Rupert (Pat) Biddle of High Ridge, MO, and William (Emma) Biddle of Attica, IN; as well as one half brother, Frank (Brenda) Beedle of Mesquite, TX. Ivan was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters, Vera Cooper and Louise Talbot; and two brothers, Thurman "Peck" Biddle and Lewis Biddle. Funeral services for Ivan Biddle will be 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, September 21, 2010, in the First United Methodist Church, 333 N. Main Street, South Bend, with Rev. Mary Hubbard officiating. Military graveside services and burial will follow at St. Joseph Cemetery, South Bend. Friends may visit with the family from 4:00 - 8:00 p.m. Monday, September 20, 2010, in the Palmer Funeral Home - Hickey Chapel, 17131 Cleveland Road, South Bend, or one hour prior to services in church on Tuesday. Expressions of sympathy on behalf of Ivan may be made to Pet Refuge, 2300 W. 6th Street, Mishawaka, IN 46544; or to First United Methodist Church. Online condolences may be offered to the Biddle family at www.palmerfuneralhomes.com. Ivan lived for his family. His wife and daughters were the light of his life. He was a wonderful husband and father and he will live in our hearts forever. We miss you Daddy. "Only one life will soon be past... Only what's done for Christ will last."

Ivan Biddle

September 21, 2010

I have known Ivan for almost 20 years. I was his pastor first at Central, and more recently again, here at First.

But I have learned new things about this man, in listening to his wonderful family. Ivan was born in Attica, Indiana, the youngest of eight children. When he was just a little bitty thing of 3, his father left – and his mother valiantly struggled to keep the children together, and keep them fed. She worked any job she could, and often had to feed the kids with cracker and ketchup sandwiches, and beans in between; all his life, these were comfort foods for Ivan.

His big sister and her new husband, Vera and Pete, came to the rescue for Ivan. Each of the older children, as they matured, took on one of the younger children – Raymond and Beulah took Rube, for example – and Pete and Vera raised Ivan the rest of the way.

They first lived in Benton Harbor, and Ivan loved the House of David – riding on the train, going through the grounds, buying treasures at the gift shop; he loved Silver Beach, and spent many happy days out there.

He was drafted for the army, but part way through Basic Training, his mother passed away – so Ivan went off to be with his family, and then returned to do Basic all over again, from beginning to end. This was divine intervention, in a way, because by that point the Korean War had come to an end, and he was there for two years for the prisoner exchange. Ivan was a baker; his recipe book from those days still has wonderful recipes in it, that have to be cut down for feeding less than 200 people at a sitting. As his family was established and grew, it was Ivan who made the birthday cakes for every birthday, wonderful creations.

When Ivan returned to the states, Raymond taught him how to drive, and he began his profession, spending long days each Saturday taking pictures of weddings, from the breakfast all the way through until the last dance in the evening. For years, every black and white photo that McDonald's did, Ivan hand-processed – and when he could no longer shoot because of physical limitations, he worked as the printer all the time. And Ray? He was like a combination of Father/older brother for Ivan.

When Ivan came back from Korea, he continued to live with Vera; by the time he was in his 30's, he was working full time for Ray at McDonald's Studio, ... and one day went out to lunch through the front door rather than the back. There, in the reception area, was a pretty young woman chatting with Mary Belle Acton, the receptionist – and he got her number, and that night was on the phone with her.

Marilyn, or Mary Jo, as the family calls her, was truly the love of Ivan's life. He was 36, she was 22, and one of the pictures he insisted on having facing him in bed at Healthwin was of Mary Jo, beaming in her wedding gown and veil.

They moved next door to Vera – Ivan was always faithful and loyal to his family. He loved his brothers and sisters, followed his half-brother recording his shows, and doted on his wide circle of nieces and nephews, and loved it when they had children.

He loved Mary Jo's family, and drove, for months, every morning down to Lakeville, where early, early in the morning, he would have breakfast cooked by her mom, and he drove Mary Jo to her job up here in the big city.

Ivan's family was the center of his life. Not just his extended family, but how proud he was of his two daughters, and of their children.

He beamed all through Elizabeth and Rich's wedding, Kelly could get anything she wanted from her grandpa, and he loved watching her grow into the beautiful young woman she is today.

Kathy might be, to Ivan, a political contrarian, but how he loved her!

He sang to both girls, danced with them both, played games with them; in turn, they learned to unpack the film and get it ready, all lined up in the box, to be evening. Every week and when guests that Mr. [unclear] did, I can hand [unclear] - and when he could no longer stand because of physical problems, he worked as the printer at the time. And Mary, the wife, was like a companion of [unclear] brother for Ivan.

When Ivan came back from Korea, he continued to live with Mary by the Elizabeth, or Mary as the family calls her, was truly the love of Ivan's life.

He was 36, she was 22, and one of the reasons he married her was that, feeling that he [unclear] at [unclear] was of Mary for, because in her he found a good and well.

They moved next door to Vera - Ivan was always [unclear] and [unclear] to his family. He loved his brothers and sisters, followed his [unclear] brother, and of his shows, and [unclear] on his wide circle of [unclear] and [unclear]. And [unclear] in [unclear] [unclear] and children.

He loved Mary to a family, and [unclear] for [unclear] every morning, down to [unclear] where [unclear] early in the morning, he would always [unclear] [unclear] [unclear]

Ivan's family was the center of the life. Not just his [unclear] family, but how great he was of his two daughters, and of [unclear] children.

He passed all through Elizabeth and [unclear] wedding. He could get anything she wanted from her [unclear], and he loved watching her grow into the beautiful young woman she is today.

I [unclear] for to have a political connection, but how he loved her!
He [unclear] to both girls, danced with them both, played games with them in [unclear] they learned to [unclear] the life and get it ready, all [unclear] in the box, to be put in his bag for his next shoot. He blared music from his car's speakers for his girls to enjoy, and took them everywhere.

The girls learned values of love and fidelity from Ivan. They both speak of another value, as well; of Ivan's acceptance of a wide variety of people, regardless of religion, or race, or sexual orientation. Ivan treated all people with dignity, even accepting a woman pastor.

And when Ferdie came into Kathy's life, there was no question, and this handsome young Philipino man became a son to him. At each parting, both each of these men told the other that he loved him.

Ivan went out of his way at fancy receptions and parties to spend time with the people working the event – the bus boys, the coat check ladies – he had a real affinity for people who worked for a living, and appreciated what they did.

These last three years at Healthwin were not as difficult for Ivan as they would have been for some people, in large part because Ivan had what he needed. Mary Jo, Kelly, Elizabeth, Kathy when in town, and his family, all came to see him. Food was there, and the TV. was always on. Bonanza, Andy Griffith, Sha Na Na, all the old shows kept him happy, with some football interspersed at this time of year.

Ivan was a member of Central church for almost thirty years, and went every Sunday – hearing Mary Jo play the organ, singing in the choir, hanging around in the back of the church with Bud and Harry and Shirley, cracking jokes and having fun. He was a man of faith, and demonstrated that in his integrity and love of family. He knew both the reality of John 3:16 – God's salvation for us – and John 3:17, how it includes everyone.

The 23rd Psalm reminds us of God being present in the best of times – when we celebrate with friends, and our cup runs over – and the hardest of times – through the shadow of the valley of death. Ivan knew that, experientially, when he celebrated with his family, and when he had to be separate from them.

The Book of John tells us how loves us, and of God's taking care of us in life and beyond death, in John 14.

Romans 8 tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ – and Ivan kenw that. Not war, not loss of parents or loved ones, not loss of health and dependence – there is nothing in all creation that can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Finally, the book of Revelation gives us a vision that had to be comforting to the elderly St. John – a man not able to die at home, but in the care of kindly strangers, in exile, miles from the familiar. It describes a heavenly city – where the light is always on, and where there is no more pain or sorrow – where God is so intimately close, that it is God's own hand that wipes away every tear. And there is a line right in the middle – "Behold, I make all things new!"

That's the promise that Ivan has now – a new body, no more pain, probably feeling like he did after basic training! And a reunion with Vera, and his mom, and Mary Jo's folks, and so many others, and joy at last. Ivan will just be catching up with them all, and then waiting, for when it is our turn to come and join him.

As Ivan Biddle put on Christ in his baptism, so now in death, he has put on glory.

glory.

As Peter Brodie put on Christ in his baptism, so now in death, he put on his death robe and then waiting for when it is our turn to come and join him eternally to a Father and so many others, and joy as well. God will just be catching up catching life in this after basic training. And a reunion with Abba and his mother and

There's the promise that Ivan has now - a new body, no more 'I' and 'me' but only 'us' as a line right in the middle - "Behold, I make all things new."

Immediately close, that it is God's own hand that makes every even turn. And where night is always on, and where there is no more broken system - where God is so abundant, so alive, soles from the familiar. It describes a heavenly city - where the the elderly St. John - a man not able to die at home, but in the case of death.

experience - there is nothing in the creation that can separate us from the love of John Henry Hise. Not war, not loss of persons or loved ones, and loss of health and freedom. It tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ - and and finally death, or John 10.

The book of John tells us how Jesus us, and of God's loving care of us in life

While on pass you will be observed by civilians who will judge the United States Army by your appearance and conduct as an individual. Failure on your part to conform to regulations with respect to wearing your uniform and to live up to the highest traditions of the service will result in unfavorable criticism of your Army, your organization, and yourself.

Father LeBrun gets St. Joe County youth award

SOUTH BEND — Father Paul LeBrun, CSC, pastor of Little Flower Church, has received the Chad Pearson Exceptional Service Award, presented annually by the St. Joseph County Juvenile Justice Center to one person for "Exceptional Service and Dedication to the Youth of St. Joseph County." Father LeBrun is the first priest to receive the award.

In addition to his many duties in the parish, Father LeBrun volunteered to help at-risk youth in St. Joseph County shortly after he arrived in South Bend in 1993 from Phoenix, Ariz., where he worked full-time in the service of such youngsters.

Father LeBrun works with the Juvenile Justice Center, Safe Station, and The Family and Children's Center. (He described his experience saying Mass on Sundays at the Juvenile Detention Center in a recent article in Today's Catholic.) He also hears confessions there and provides support and affirmation to the young people detained in the Center.

Father LeBrun is involved with Safe Station, the local shelter for teen-age runaways, and with The Family and Children's Center, where he says Mass and hears confessions on Mondays.

In all three places he provides a listening ear and caring heart to the youngsters who need someone to talk to. He helps with job placement, supervises their appointed community service, and provides a number of activities to keep them occupied in constructive ways. Father LeBrun tries to convey to the young people the message that God loves them and invites them to follow his Son Jesus.

and she was blessed with the spiritual gift of empowering young adults in leadership positions. I was amazed at the way she could encourage someone to lead a group who might otherwise have remained anonymous. Her passion for her ministry was continually evident in the way she reached out to everyone by giving a listening ear, offering assistance and or advice, drawing people together for worship or discussions, being present at their gatherings, attending week long work-trips participating in student conventions and by teaching and explaining the message of Christ and the doc-

Summer program by Alliance for Ca

Elementary programs will be held at the following schools: St. Adalbert, St. Anthony de Padua, St. Matthew and Our Lady of Hungary, all in South Bend. In addition, new this year, is St. Monica, Mishawaka. Programs provide assistance and enrichment and will be held Monday through

Early-bird classes

By Elmer J. Danch

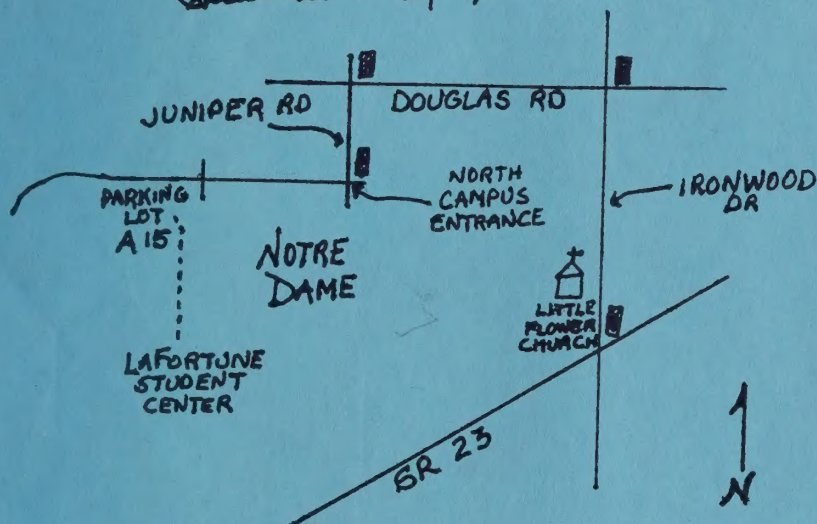

DONALDSON — The Early Bird program at Ancilla College, designed for high school students age 16 or older with a B average, was a challenging opportunity for Coleman Ballard of Knox, but he passed with flying colors.

During his junior year at Knox High School, he entered the Early Bird program, took advantage of the opportunity to begin his college career early and compiled 18 college credit hours when he received his high school diploma from Knox in May.

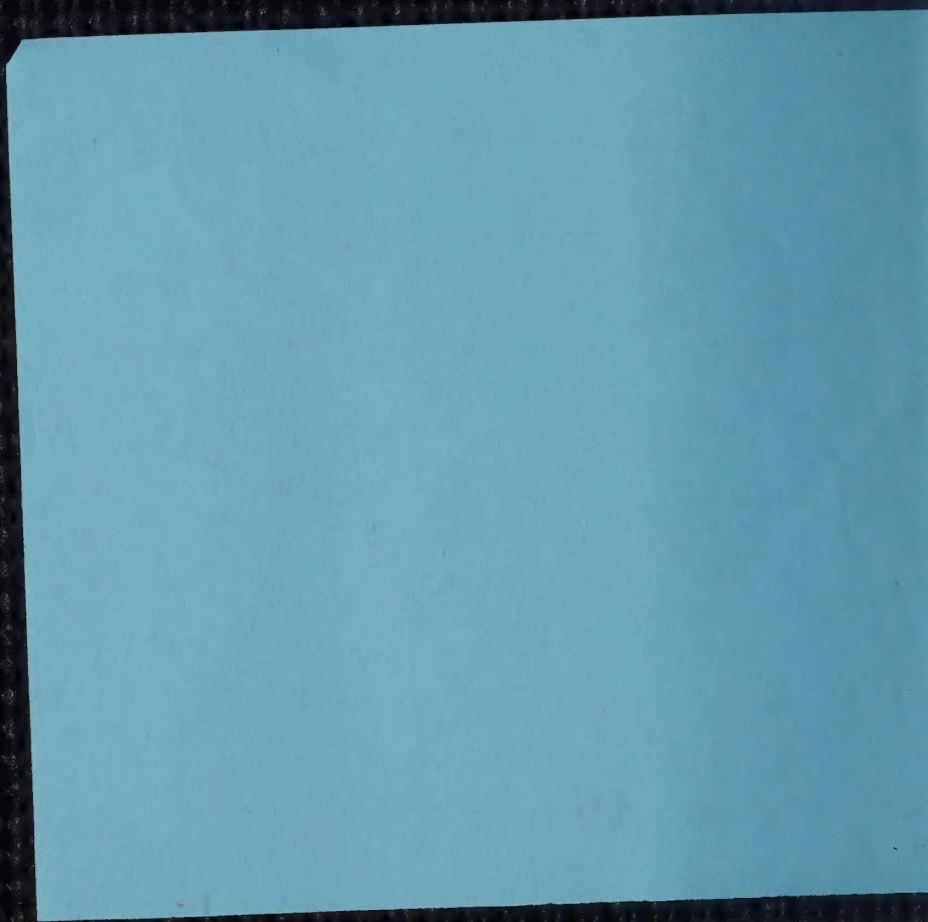

It was Ballard's mother who learned about the Early Bird program and helped him enroll. "I did not have much homework in high school," said Coleman, "so I really enjoyed the challenge of taking col-

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I hope you get this before you leave for vacation. This will be really short but I want to thank you so much for the bear and card you sent me. I like it alot.

I have been very busy lately, but I will write a longer letter soon. I am doing well. School is going good.

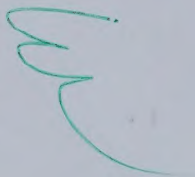

I love you very much!

miss you.

Love,

Amy

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some faint smudges and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page shows the binding of the book, and the overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.

aid the area, including the nearby Rum Village neighborhood, he added.

Attention also needs to be given to Indiana Avenue, urged Paul and Christine Szalay of 1822 S. Taylor St. Once a business area rivaling Michigan Street downtown, it has fallen on hard times and some residents are afraid to walk there even in the daytime, they said.

Robert Benko of 1521 Renfrew Drive urged Kernan to promote better communications between the city's various neighborhood groups. Many do not now know what the others are doing, he said.

Kernan was quick to back the idea.

"We have a vested interest in promoting neighborhood groups," he said. "We prefer for them to solve their problems themselves, if they can, since they know best what needs to be done."

However, the city has little power, other than its encouragement, to create organizations in neighborhoods that don't have them now, the mayor said.

"We can't organize neighborhood groups on our own. It has to come from within the neighborhoods. There has to be a desire of the residents to do it," he said.

In other areas touched on Wednesday, the mayor:

■ Told Philip Patnaude of 1410 E. Donald St. that plans to raze the former Colfax Theater in the 200 block of West Colfax Avenue downtown are not likely to be dropped. Patnaude said it may be possible to save the theater and use it for community events, or as a place for performances by small theater groups.

That could conflict with similar plans for the State Theater in the 200 block of South Michigan Street, Kernan said. Consultant Daniel Pierotti, of Madison, Wis., suggested restoring the State, but said the Colfax's condition does not warrant similar action.

"Our understanding from the consultant is that the building is a disaster," Kernan said of the Colfax.

"There would be no market for the Colfax downtown once the State is reopened and improvements are made to the Morris Civic (Auditorium) and Palais Royale (ballroom)," Kernan said. "The private sector isn't going to come in and put up the money to reopen it."

The city hopes to carry out Pierotti's recommendation that it create a downtown entertainment district centered on the Morris Civic, Palais Royale and the State. The Palais Royale adjoins the Morris Civic.

The city already owns the State, and plans to buy the Colfax in order to carry out its demolition.

■ Told Diana Fleming of 1815 Webster St. that the city will include her street on the list of areas for future curb and sidewalk installations. The street has neither now, Fleming said.

Residents will have to pay a share of the cost of any such work, since the city can't afford to carry out any large installation projects on its own, Kernan cautioned.

■ Was told by Ray Chase, manager of the new Meanwhile . . . nightclub at 222 S. Michigan St. that the club will try to do a better job of keeping the service alley behind its building clean and clear of delivery trucks.

Kernan said his office received a complaint from the employee of a downtown bank that trucks seem to block the alley frequently. The alley is the only delivery access to the club, Chase said.

"We're not trying to be bad neighbors," he assured Kernan.

■ Was told by City Engineer John E. Leszczynski that the city would use rubberized asphalt on its streets if a local asphalt batching firm can be convinced to manufacture the material and if its price falls to a competitive level.

Rubberized asphalt, made by mixing old tires with regular asphalt, lasts longer than regular blacktop and is a good way to recycle the tires, said Merl C. Fahler of 312 N. Lafayette Blvd.

"It's good stuff," Leszczynski said of the hybrid material. "We're interested in it and would apply it to our streets if it was made locally."

Rubberized asphalt now costs between $10 and $15 a ton more than regular asphalt, the engineer said. No local firms now make it, he added.

ttlesey and David Clute, assistant manager of Potato Creek State Park, walk the seeds were planted Wednesday.

oes to grow some history

a formidable barrier to the West.

"It's all gone now. It will never come back," said Timothy Cordell, a naturalist at Potato Creek State Park.

At least those grasses won't spring to life without intervention.

Potato Creek managers have taken a step to return a bit of history to the region.

On Wednesday, they began the state park system's first seeding of those indigenous varieties like Indian Grass, Big Blue Stem and Side Oats Gramma that began to confront the settlers with more and more regularity on their trek west.

Growth will be slow — and perhaps not even assured — on this one-acre demonstration plot, located between the north edge of Worcester Lake and the main park roadway.

"It may be three or four years before we see some results," said assistant park manager David Clute.

The irony was not lost on Cordell that the resurrection of a miniature parcel of prairie grasses is occurring a stone's throw from the place which but they were going to work on," Mangus lamented.

He asserted his belief that it is the bill passed Wednesday by Senate Republicans that must be considered.

However, Rep. B. Patrick Bauer, D-South Bend, chairman of the committee, said he wants the conferees to use the budget-redistricting bill passed by the House as the basis for discussion.

Mangus and state Rep. Thomas S. Kromkowski, D-South Bend, were appointed by the conferees to serve on a subcommittee that is to consider the redistricting portion of the bill.

As passed by the Senate, the measure would keep Marshall County as part of the 3rd Congressional District, along with all of St. Joseph, Elkhart and LaPorte counties.

Bauer said he recessed the meeting this morning after being informed of the death of Rep. Joseph Summers, D-Marion, who had been seriously ill.

Who's Who

PAT BERARDI (Stage Manager/Rosie) is a past president of South Bend Civic Theatre and a member of Civic's Long Range Planning Committee. As an actress, she has played lead roles in SBCT productions of Laughing Wild, Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Deathtrap, Marvin's Room, and The Shadow Box.

RHODA M. BRADSHAW (Darlene Love) is very happy to be back doing what's become an unofficial "tradition" for her—spending her birthday on the Civic stage (Ain't Misbehavin' in 1999 and The All-Night Strut in 2000)—and even happier to be back on stage after directing Blues in the Night in September.

RICHARD CLAWSON (Director/Musical Director), makes his SBCT directing debut in this production. His previous credits elsewhere include direction and/or musical direction for theaters in Dallas, New Orleans, and Mobile. Currently director of music and liturgy at St. Joseph Church in South Bend, he is pleased to be involved in "putting on a show" again! He wishes to thank his wonderful, hard-working cast—and a special thanks to Pat, Janet, Rick, and Steve for their hard work and support above and beyond the call.

RICK ELLIS (Jeff Barry) was seen recently in Chicago at Elkhart Civic Theatre. At SBCT, his acting credits include the role of Stanley Kowalski in A Streetcar Named Desire and Nick in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, among others. He has directed SBCT productions of Laughter on the 23rd Floor and The Old Settler.

STEVE A. GERGACZ, Jr. (Gus Sharkey, Chorus) has played major acting roles since 1985 in SBCT productions of Play It Again, Sam, A Thousand Clowns, The Dining Room, Laughter on the 23rd Floor, Glengarry Glen Ross, Three Viewings, Mere Mortals, and A Streetcar Named Desire, to name just a few.

BEN LITTLE (Chorus) makes his SBCT debut in this production. He is currently working also on a local independent film, titled "Visitation Rights."

PHIL PATNAUDE (Technical Director), SBCT's Senior Resident Scenic Designer, continues to relish the design challenges The Firehouse gives him. "I always strive to create something different and an environment seemingly larger than it is." Phil is also grateful to his family for their help on this set.

SUZANNE RAGSDALE (Chorus), who makes her SBCT debut in this show, has appeared previously in local productions of Hello, Dolly and The Music Man.

JANET SHAFER (Ellie), who studied musical theatre at The American Musical & Dramatic Academy in New York, played the part of "Babe" in SBCT's production of Crimes of the Heart in 1990. One of her favorite acting roles, she says, was that of Eliza Doolittle, playing opposite Jim Coppens, in My Fair Lady.

MARK C. SCHEIBELHUT (Chorus), Mishawaka-born and raised, made his first stage appearance as Jesus in a 1997 MHS production of Godspell. He has since performed in two musicals at Civic: The Music Man and Forever Plaid.

MARIANNE SHELTON (Annie) made her Civic debut last summer in Oliver! A veteran director, stage-manager, and actress with more than 40 production credits in Wyoming and Indiana, she recently appeared in Cinderella and Clue, The Musical! at Mishawaka Civic. Next, she'll direct If A Man Answers for OCP.

NANCY JO TAYLOR (Chorus) was last seen on stage as a hearing- and speech-impaired, HIV-infected, homeless IV-drug-user in an SBCT staged reading of Joe Pintauro's Raft of the Medusa. A loyal usher for many years at Civic, she is grateful for this first full-production performance opportunity.

MARY WAGGONER (Chorus) has appeared previously at The Firehouse in two Sunday Musical Concerts. In the early 80s, she appeared as Irene Molloy in a Presbyterian Players production of Hello Dolly, starring Pherbia Engdahl.

KAMERON WATERS (Chorus) is appearing for the first time at SBCT. Originally from Kansas City, she has performed previously in productions of Guys and Dolls, Peter Pan, Hair, Oliver, and You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown.

PAM WILLIAMS (Pattie) was seen recently in SBCT's production of Blues in the Night. In 1998, she played one of the leads in Civic's production of Seascape.

Mom and Dad, Merry Christmas,

I'm sending you the slides from the first half of the year. I've labelled most of them. You can look at them. I hope for Christmas. It's your Christmas present. I'll explain them when I come back.

I'm also sending envelopes full of money from the countries I've been to for ~~every~~ the kids. Give it to them for Christmas from me. I'll be in Greece by the time you get this. I hope everything is going alright at home.

Yours,
Chris

It has been a long time since I have talked with most of you. All is going well here! We are getting ready for our newest addition. We were told that there is a 80-90% chance for a girl but if you know the Fedewa trend we are still apprehensive! Actually, I am planning a girl room & have bought a ton of girl clothes so, we are hopeful but I did keep all my receipts!

Lukas is getting so big, I can't believe how fast they grow up! He is already wearing a size 8 shoe so, if you hear of any big foot sightings in Indiana—it is just my kid!!! Below is a link to some pictures we took recently so, you can all see my little angel!

I hope this note finds all of you doing well! Take care & know you are all in our thoughts!

As many of you already know we confirmed on Monday May 9th that we are having a baby girl!!

Our repeat ultrasound went very well, our baby girl IS growing, she is still very small but the Dr. is very hopeful she will be 5 lbs at birth. She gained about 14 oz in the past 3 weeks so we are praying the growth continues at the same rate for the next 3 weeks.

Our scheduled C-section date is June 1st so, keep us all in your thoughts and prayers!

We will keep you up to date!

Notes for William Odell(Odle):

William ODell, born about 1714, settled near Randallstown in Baltimore Co. Maryland. He probably died there in Jan. of 1749. The inventory of the Estate of William O' Dell, late of Baltimore County, was filed on Feb. 7, 1749. Elizabeth ODell, widow of William, Administratrix, filed 1st account, May 30, 1750, in the office of the Register of Wills, Baltimore City. She says there is no Kinn to the Deceased in this county that she knows of and gives names and ages of her children by the year. Appraisement made by John Stinchcomb and Joshua Owings. Her securities were John Ward and Edward Oursler. Several Tracts of Land owned by the Deceased seem to have been inherited by the eldest son John, under old English Law./ Some Researchers say Elizabeth was a Talbot.

1 LEMUEL A. BIDDLE, the son of Dr. William George and Sarah (Underwood) BIDDLE, early pioneers of White Co. and Tippecanoe Co. was born in Pennsylvania in 1828 and died at his son, Joseph William Biddle's home in Green Hill on Nov. 27, 1908. He and his wife, Anna ~~Friend~~ ^{Edwards}, are buried in ~~Davis~~ ^{Davis} Cemetery south of this community. GREENBUSH CEMETRY IN LAFAYETTE.

Joseph William Biddle born Jan. 18, 1857 in Tippecanoe Co. and Sarah Boothroyd born in 1862 were married on May 29, 1882 in Tippecanoe Co. They first lived in Lafayette, Ind. Then about 1898 they moved to Green Hill. They became familar with the community because Sarah's brother, Peter Boothroyd a blacksmith in Green Hill lived with his family there at the time. They lived in a house owned at the time by George Mann (Roy Robinette lived there in later years) for appx. four (4) years before moving to the Biddle home located south of what is known in later years as the Franklin Store. They both died in their family home, Joseph in 1943 and Sarah in 1941 and are buried in Davis Cemetery. Joseph William was a painter and learned his trade with his father, who trimed carriages along with his trade. He continued painting carpenter and interior decorating and paper hanging until he retired. After which he was custodian of the new school. His son-in-law, Ed Watkins was trustee at the time the new building was built following the fire. Sarah Catherine Biddle was an excellent seamstress and provided this service for many Green Hill residents. Notations from a note book found in her sewing machine drawer just a couple years ago by her granddaughter, Shirley Freeman, showed she charged Doc Yeager for sewing 1 white dress $1.50, 1 waist 50¢, brown dress $1.25 and 1 skirt $1.00, this was dated June 6, 1913. Also several paper patterns so there was a lot of material in a skirt or dress at that time. Joseph and Sarah raised (8) eight children in Green Hill.

LEMUEL ALFRED, born April 23, 1884 in Tippecanoe Co. married Elizabeth Ade. He farmed near Green Hill on one of the Ade Farms which they purchas and raised 1 daughter, Alice who never married. This family has all passed away and are buried at Ashbury Cemetary east of Green Hill.

JOSEPH FRANK born Oct. 27, 1886 in Tipp. Co. never married. He lived all his life in Green Hill. He belonged to the American Legion Post in Otterbein for many years. 1. Introduction

The purpose of this report is to provide a detailed analysis of the data collected during the experiment. The data was collected over a period of 10 days, and the results are presented in the following sections.

2. Methodology

The methodology used in this experiment was a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods. The qualitative methods included interviews with participants and observations of their behavior. The quantitative methods included the use of a standardized questionnaire and the collection of physiological data.

CYCLOPEDIA OF NEW JERSEY

ed Democrats. Senator Southard affiliated with the "Anti-Jacksonites," and when, at the close of President Jackson's second term, Van Buren was nominated by the Democrats and the Whig party was formed, Southard joined with the new organization, which was, in effect, identical with the Anti-Jackson faction.

In 1838 Mr. Southard became president of the Morris Canal and Banking Company, and he thereafter made his residence in Jersey City. He was an ardent advocate of temperance, carrying his views and practice to that of total abstinence. He was strongly attached to the Presbyterian church, but was not a communicant. He married, in June, 1812, while residing in Virginia, Rebecca Harrow, daughter of an Episcopal clergyman. He died June 26, 1842, at the home of his wife's brother, in Fredericksburg, Virginia.

MORRIS, Robert Hunter,

Jurist, Statesman.

Robert Hunter Morris was born in Morrisania, New York, about 1700, son of Lewis and Isabella (Graham) Morris. His father was Chief Justice of New York, and Councillor of that province, 1710-1738.

Robert Hunter Morris became a lawyer, and was Chief Justice of New Jersey for twenty-six years (1738-1764), occupying that office at the time of his death. Smith, in his "History of New Jersey," says "his vigorous powers of mind were improved by liberal education. As a judge he was impartial and upright. Insisting on a strict adherence to the forms of the courts, he reduced the pleadings to precision and method. His address was easy, and there was a commanding influence in his manners. He was free from avarice; generous and manly, though sometimes inconsiderate in the relations of life: often singular, sometimes whimsical; always opinionated, and mostly flexible. He was comely in appearance, graceful in manners, and of a most imposing presence." He died at Shrewsbury, New Jersey, January 27, 1764. His son Robert was the first Chief Justice of New Jersey under the constitution of 1776.

CLARK, Abraham,

Distinguished Physician, Publicist.

Dr. Abraham Clark, an early skillful physician, familiar with general literature and fond of scientific inquiry, was born in Rahway, New Jersey, in October, 1767, son of Abraham Clark, a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

His childhood was passed amid the excitement and dangers of the revolutionary War, and he had vivid remembrance of the frequent removals of the family to avoid the pursuit of the enemy, and the almost constant dread of the destruction of their home. Two of his brothers were in the patriot army, and suffered imprisonment by the British—one in the New York Sugar House and the other in the Jersey Prison Ship.

He began studying medicine under the preceptorship of Dr. John Griffiths, who was to become his father-in-law, and then attended the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania, under the instruction of the noted Professors Shippen, Wistar and Rush. He was one of the eleven who formed the District Medical Society of the County of Essex. He first engaged in practice in Elizabeth, thence removing to New York, where for a time he was engaged in professional work. He eventually settled permanently in Newark, New Jersey, where he secured an extensive and remunerative practice. In 1794 he was a delegate to the Continental Congress. He was not only a skillful physician, but was somewhat of a litterateur, quite well read, and his mind well stored with a varied equipment of information. He was an excellent conversationalist, and an instructive and amusing companion. He was an accomplished chemist and pharmacist. "He

So. Bend Lib Pearce Ensigns in Ky. 929.2 P. 3162 P 316p.
..... And also Commissions for the following Gentlemen as officers for Capt. John Cockey's Company, who has resigned, and has not acted for some time; Benjamin Talbott, Capt. Vincent Talbott first Lieut. Thomas Chineworth second ditto and Philip Pearce Ensign....."

(Note by M. J. P.: Prior to 1871, Ensign was the lowest rank of commissioned officers. Please note, however, that Philip G. Pearce was acting as Second Lieut., in 1779, per the Muster Roll and Return cited above.)

1783 Tax List, Baltimore County, Md.:

Philip G. Pearce was listed, in the Middle and Back River Upper Hundreds, as owning 4 acres of "Pearce's Security to Molly's Industry". His family consisted of 6 white inhabitants, not broken down by age or sex.

This is the last Maryland record found of Philip C. Pearce (3). It is believed that he left Maryland for the settlement on the Watauga River in North Carolina (now Tennessee), shortly thereafter. The "Ashby Pearce Book" reveals that his son, Phillip Pearce (4), was born in Baltimore (Co.) Md. 24 Feb 1794, so it was probably after that date and his family started on the journey.

The following is quoted from "Tennessee Cousins", by Worth Stickley Ray, pp. 22, 23, 24:

"WHEN WASHINGTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, BECAME PART OF FRANKLIN. "COL. JOHN SEVIER and his friends, who had fought in the revolution, in the wars against the Indians, and whose combined wisdom had established the first Government on the Watauga, organized a separate State about 1785, which was called FRANKLIN. Col. JOHN TIPTON, to whom belongs the credit of having sided in all previous governmental progress on the Watauga, opposed this new step; one that North Carolina, at first condoned, and later condemned.

"..... one needs to read Judge Samuel Williams' "History of the Lost State of Franklin" to understand it all.

"This embryo government duly functioned for some two years, having its State Officials, its House and Senate and its public officials, who, in most instances, were composed of those who had served under North Carolina. Can we say this State of Franklin was a failure? No. But it did not and seemingly could not, continue to 'fit into' the political picture. So, it passed out.

(Six paragraphs are omitted here, for brevity, then Ray continues)

"However, in 1787, while the State of Franklin was trying feebly to function, the people of the WATAUGA and of FRANKLIN, had petitioned North Carolina for a change and for further release from so-called North Carolina rule, which taxed them, but gave nothing in the way of protection in return.

BENZEL-ELLSWORTH

Sgt. Dale Ellsworth of Geiger Field, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellsworth of Oxford, was married Saturday evening, Oct. 30, to Miss Ilene Benzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benzel of Ralston, Wash. The Congregational Church was the scene of the beautiful candle-light ceremony at 8:00 o'clock, Rev. Kirkschenmann officiating. The altar was decorated with baskets of white and bronze chrysanthemums. A program of bridal music was played by the church organist, Miss Schafer, and she also accompanied the soloist, Miss Alma IIs, who sang "I Love You Truly." Miss IIs lighted the candles for the ceremony.

The bride's costume was a brown two-piece dress trimmed in ice-blue, with hat and matching accessories. She carried a white prayer book to which a white orchid was fastened. Her attendant was Miss Bonnie Greer of Spokane, Wash., who wore a rust colored dress with aqua trim and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. Cpl. Willard Smith of Geiger Field, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother, Fred Benzel. A large three-tiered wedding cake was the centerpiece of a beautifully decorated table, and the bride's sister and sister-in-law served. Many lovely wedding gifts were on display. Mrs. Ellsworth, a graduate of Ritzville, Wash., has been employed by the Ordnance Command in Spokane where the young couple will make their home at present.

Officers and friends of the groom arranged a special dinner for the newlyweds at Geiger Field.

KERN-SENESEC

Mr. and Mrs. John Kern announce the marriage of their daughter, Edith Mae Kern, to Pfc. Everett Cletus Senesac, son of Mrs. Victoria Senesac, at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The ceremony took place at the Post Chapel at 5:00 P. M., Nov. 18, with Father A. E. Gallagher officiating. The attendants were Robert Castaneda of the U. S. Army and Marjorie Anstey, a Red Cross Nurse. Both were in uniform.

The bride wore soldier blue with navy blue accessories and carried a white Rosary. The bride and her attendant wore white gardenia corsages.

A dinner was served for the bridal party at the Service Club immediately following the ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Waynesville, Mo., where the groom is stationed.

CALLAWAY-HARNES

Mrs. Helen Callaway and Ross Harness, seaman 1-c, were married Nov. 10 in the chapel of the naval base, Washington, D. C., where Ross is stationed. The ceremony was performed by the chaplain of the base and attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hayes, formerly of Fowler who live in Washington. The newlyweds were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes at a dinner following the wedding.

GREGORY-ROBERTS

A pretty wedding was solemnized Friday, October 15, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. E. F. Smith, Jacksonville, Fla., when Miss Deaneth R. Gregory, 18, daughter of Mrs. S. H. Gregory, 1008 Tippecanoe street, Lafayette, became the bride of Sgt. Donald V. Roberts, 21, of Michigan, stationed at Camp Stewart, Ga. He is with an anti-aircraft battalion there.

The single ring ceremony was performed before a fireplace banked with palm leaves, red coral vines and roses. The bride was attired in a soldier blue dress, with luggage tan accessories, and wore a corsage of pink roses. Her attendant, Mrs. Smith, wore sky blue, with a white gardenia corsage. A reception followed the ceremony. The candle-lit serving table was centered with a large wedding cake, and surrounded with red coral vines and red roses. After a few day's stay in Jacksonville, they returned to Savannah, Ga., and later Sgt. Roberts returned to Camp Stewart, and his wife returned to her home in Lafayette, for the present.

Mrs. Roberts, better known as "Dean" is a former well-known and popular Fowler girl, where she attended the local school. She enrolled at Jefferson high school, Lafayette, in her junior year. She was an honor student there, won many honors, and was also a member of the Phi Theta Sigma Delta sorority. Since her graduation in June she has been employed in the news room at the Journal and Courier. Sgt. Roberts returned to the States in April, after having served in the U. S. Army four years, in Puerto Rico and other places.

BESSE-HANDY

The marriage of Yvonne Besse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Besse, of Fowler, to Sgt. Frank Handy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Handy, sr., of Fowler, took place Thursday morning at 10 at the rectory of Sacred Heart church, Rev. L. F. Dufrane, officiated. Miss Darlene Besse, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Arnold Besse, brother, was best man. Dinner was served to 25 guests in the school dining room.

The bride is a 1943 graduate of Fowler high school and has been employed by the Dean W. Davis company, at Kentland. Sgt. Handy is a 1940 graduate of Hoopeston high school and is stationed at Camp Campbell, Ky., as a radio operator. They will live at Hopkinsville, Ky.

Charles H. Dodson
Weds in Florida

Charles H. Dodson, vice president of the Benton Review Publishing Company and former county superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Pearl J. Swails, of Indianapolis, were united in marriage on March 14 in the First Baptist church, at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Guests included the groom's two daughters by a former marriage, Mrs. Eleanor Smith, of New Jersey, and Mrs. Alice O'Neil of Indianapolis.

WALLACE-McCONAUGHY

Miss Joanna Wallace, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Wallace, of Crawfordsville and a granddaughter of Mrs. Laura Colescott of Fowler, was married to Cadet David L. McConaughy, at Nashville, Tenn. The following account of the wedding is from the Crawfordsville Journal-Review:

"Major and Mrs. H. C. Wallace, 107 west Jefferson street, returned Sunday from Nashville, Tenn., where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Joanna, to Aviation Cadet David L. McConaughy, son of Mrs. Ruth McConaughy of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The wedding took place at 6:30 p. m., Saturday evening at Chapel No. 1 of the Aviation Center at Nashville, Tenn. The chapel altar was decorated with autumn flowers. A full military ceremony was used with Miss Laura Wallace, sister of the bride, acting as maid of honor, and Aviation Cadet Edward Gordon serving as best man. Major James Wilford, chaplain, read the ceremony. Among those present was the brother of the bride, Collins Robert Wallace.

The bride, who wore an aqua blue suit and carried red roses, was given in marriage by her father, Major Hawthorne C. Wallace, of the 27th Evacuation Hospital, now stationed at Elkins, W. Va.

The bride attended Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio, and has been in technician school at Indiana University Medical Center this fall. The groom was graduated from Muskingum College last June and entered the service immediately thereafter. Mr. and Mrs. McConaughy's present address is 2109 9th Ave. South, Nashville, Tenn."

BIDDLE-PATNAUDE

A quiet and impressive wedding took place Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock in the chapel of the Sacred Heart Academy when Miss Beulah Biddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Biddle of South Bend, Indiana, became the bride of Pvt. Raymond Patnaude, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meddie Patnaude of this place. A Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. L. Dufrane, who performed the wedding ceremony. The bride was lovely in a maize colored suit with black accessories.

The bridesmaid, Miss Roberta Goodman wore a Nile green suit and black accessories. Each wore a corsage of sweetheart roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Cletus Windler who wore a dark brown suit.

Following the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents on east Third street, after which the bridal couple left for a short honeymoon in Chicago. The bride is employed in the Interstate office in Kentland, which position she will continue to hold. The young couple are both graduates of Fowler high school. Pvt. Patnaude is now stationed at Camp Cooke, California.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF

Mrs. Lemuel Biddle,
Died March 13, 1908.
Age 71 years.

Gone but not forgotten

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Milford 83-year-old 'stable' after explosion

By AMY I. STICKEL

Tribune Staff Writer

MILFORD — An 83-year-old Milford man was in stable condition at Kosciusko Community Hospital this morning after his house blew up Wednesday, possibly because he left his natural gas stove on.

Earl Calvin Warren, 317 E. Smith St., was inside the house when it exploded at 9:10 a.m., leaving only a door frame standing, neighbor Norma Davis said.

Keith Hunsberger, assistant chief of the Milford Volunteer Fire Department, said a neighbor ran outside when he heard the explosion. After looking at the rubble, the neighbor assumed Warren was dead until he heard him yelling, "Get me out of here."

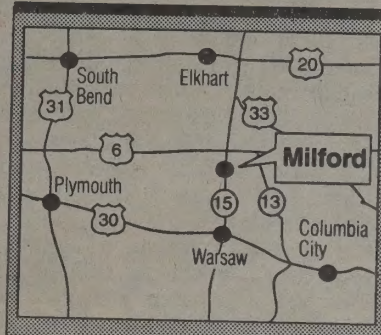

Firefighters pulled the roof off Warren's small home and found him sitting in a chair, Hunsberger said. When he was helped out of his leveled house and his chair also was removed, Warren sat back down in the chair until the ambulance arrived, Hunsberger said.

Davis said Warren was talking when the Emergency Medical Services came. He looked like he was shocked, Davis said, but other than that seemed fine.

He was taken to the hospital, where he has been in stable condition since the Wednesday blast.

The blast knocked curtains off the wall of the trailer next to Warren's house, Hunsberger added.

Hunsberger said Northern Indiana Public Service Co. is conducting a private investigation into the explosion. Jim Manhart, a spokesman for NIPSCO, said he could not confirm if the investigation is under way.

He did say that NIPSCO is assuming that the explosion came from a faulty or misused appliance, rather than a gas line leak.

"It's pointed to that direction (a gas stove left on too long)," Manhart said.

"I can't believe he's still alive," said neighbor Joe Estep, who retired from NIPSCO 10 years ago. "It's amazing you could live through that."

The neighbors spoke fondly of Warren, who finally gave up riding his bike around this small northern Kosciusko County town several years ago. Davis said, "Earl has been in this town forever."

"He was a storyteller," said

Terry McDaniel. Everyone agreed that Warren likes to talk.

Since Warren is getting elderly, Davis said neighbors would often stop by to check on him.

The Milford firefighters sifted through the rubble to find some of Warren's possessions to keep them safe while he's in the hospital, Hunsberger said.

The explosion marked the third incident this week in Michiana that involved natural gas.

Natural gas leaks in Plymouth and Warsaw Monday and Tuesday resulted in a school and several residences being evacuated.

In Warsaw, Madison Elementary School and more than two dozen homes were evacuated and parts of downtown were cordoned off Tuesday after natural gas leaked during maintenance at a utility station, officials said.

Officials said elevated pressure from a natural gas line in a downtown system caused natural gas to be vented into the atmosphere.

In Plymouth, a ruptured natural gas line caused a residential evacuation and was to blame for motorists being inconvenienced by a downtown roadblock Monday night. While demolishing a city-owned building in the 100 block of West LaPorte Street, Jackson Wrecking of Rochester apparently ruptured an underground 3-inch steel pipe containing a 2-inch plastic main.

Milford volunteer firefighters searched Wednesday. When firefighters lifted the foreground, alive and talking.

The history of the United States is a complex and multifaceted story that spans centuries. It begins with the indigenous peoples who lived on the continent long before the arrival of European settlers. The story of the United States is one of exploration, discovery, and the struggle for freedom and independence. The American Revolution was a pivotal moment in the nation's history, leading to the birth of a new country. The years following the Revolution were marked by westward expansion and the growth of the nation. The Civil War was a defining moment in the country's history, as it fought to resolve the issue of slavery. The Reconstruction era followed, a period of rebuilding and reform. The late 19th and early 20th centuries saw the rise of industrialization and the growth of the American economy. The Progressive Era was a time of social and political reform. The 1920s and 1930s were marked by the Great Depression and the New Deal. World War II was a defining moment in the 20th century, as the United States emerged as a superpower. The Cold War era followed, a period of tension and competition between the United States and the Soviet Union. The 1960s and 1970s saw the Vietnam War and the civil rights movement. The 1980s and 1990s were marked by the end of the Cold War and the rise of the United States as a global leader. The 21st century has seen the United States continue to shape the world, facing new challenges and opportunities.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

To All of Our Friends and Family,

We are grateful for all the blessings upon our family this past year. So much is happening amongst our family.

The Kelley's, Laura, Keith and Hudson(2) are as busy as ever in St. Augustine with the hurricanes adding to Keith's workload and Laura's budding new career in real estate. All this and trying to keep up with Hudson (reaching his terribly adorable twos in September) is quite a daunting task. They are expecting the arrival of their second(our 7th grand)child in May. We can't wait to see them this Christmas especially our LITTLE Hudson, we haven't seen him since September.

The Gillespie's, Kira(4) and Delaney(1) are a delight, never too far away with Susan and Peter so busy at the studio and building their house on the back forty. Peter with his photographic skills and Susan's dedication to our wedding clients have become the driving force at the Studio. Kira has been enjoying preschool and being a loving big sister. Effervescent is the word for Delaney who is never without a smile.

The building of the Gillespie house has actually been the undertaking of Bryan for most of the past year. He has impressed us all with the intricate work he has done. He has single handedly provided both the brawn and the brainpower for the project. Even the building inspector was impressed with the quality of his work and passed the project with flying colors. Bryan is a loving father and provides well for McKenna(3). They continue to be a delight for us. Bryan is awaiting Melissa's return from Japan where she has been teaching English since her graduation from St. Mary's College this past spring.

The Graysons, Amy, Ryan and Elaina(1) quite the rolling stones since their wedding in February 2002. They purchased their first home, celebrated the birth of their first baby, moved to Richmond, IN, purchased their second home (a 15 acre farm), are expecting their second baby in February, got their first farm animal, a bunny, bought a miniature horse, chased Daisy their German Shepherd all while Ryan taking a new job as Regional sales supervisor for Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and Cincinnati with Domestic Uniform Co.

When Susan and I work a wedding Grandma always sacrifices and stays home with the grandbabies. Grandpa always works in time for storytime at the Notre Dame Bookstore, marching band day at the Football Hall of Fame or horseback riding on Petey the Pony with as many as he can handle(I am going for the record; Kira, McKenna, Hudson, Delaney and Elaina, all without a net!).

When Ann and I can get out of the studio we enjoy our family, a little work on the farm, some travel and flying in small aircraft. We celebrated our 30th anniversary in May in Savannah, GA. We're half way to our parents Ray and Beulah who celebrate their 60th December 26th. Art and Marilyn celebrated their 30th and are doing well. We marvel at their vibrancy and enthusiasm. What a marvelous example they set for us and all of our children.

With the grandbabies, five horses, a pony and three cats we need to keep our vitamin supply handy. We remember all our loved ones that are not here to enjoy all of our good fortune, we pray for them and all that are here to support us. We are grateful for your love and friendship over the years.

*Merry Christmas,
Dave & Ann*

Dear Beulah and Raymond,

Kay and I really enjoyed our time together with you on Wednesday, but wish it was under better circumstances. I wrote a letter to Pecks children and Kay thought you might like to see it. Hope to visit more with you here in South Bend at a happier time and place.
Love Kay and Dan

On our trip back to South Bend after the funeral services and the wonderful lunch at the church, Kay and I talked about her relatives, the ones who have left us and the ones we have left with us. We were happy we got to spend time with Uncle Bill and Aunt Emma and to assist them as they needed us. We also had Uncle Raymond and Aunt Beulah, Uncle Ivan and Aunt Mary Jo at our table, along with Linda Talbott Miller. We also got to see all of "Peck" and Ester's children and spouses along with many of their children and grandchildren.

The love shown by everyone turned a sad event into a celebration of a life well spent. It reminded me of one of my most favorite verses, which I will add to this note:

THURMAN OLIVER "PECK" BIDDLE

December 4, 1922-----February 22, 2004

THE DASH

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of his friend.

He referred to the dates on his tombstone from the beginning---- to the end.

He noted that first came the date of his birth and spoke of the second with tears,

But he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that he spent alive on earth

And now only those who loved him know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not how much we own; the cars, the house, the cash.

What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard, are there things you'd like to change?

For you never know how much time is left, {You could be at dash mid-range}

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and what's real

And always try to understand how other people feel.

And be less quick to anger, and show appreciation more,

And love the people in our lives like we never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect, and more often wear a smile

Remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So when your eulogy is being read with your life's actions to rehash. . . .

Would you be pleased with the things they say about how you spent your dash?

I believe Peck was happy with his dash, he married very well, had a helpmate most of his adult life, went to war and fought for our freedom, raised five kids { and I am sure he was a great influence on his grandchildren} I remember him as a man who was always smiling and it was infectious, he caused most people around him to smile, I always felt welcome in his home. He leaves a large space in all our lives and will be missed, but I believe he was ready to move on to a better place where there is no pain or suffering.

I hope we can stay in contact and have more time together as Kay and I love all of you, hope to see you more.

Kay and Dan

THE TOWNER'S FAMILY TREE

It would seem that in the past 2-3 decades people have become more aware of their roots. Family's are finding out that before you can know who you are, it's important to know where you came from. The Towner family is blessed with a rich history in this country beginning back in the middle 1600's when our ancestor Richard, a sailor for the British Navy, was put ashore at Savannah, Ga. to die of Yellow Fever. He survived of course, married his nurse and moved to Charleston, SC where he ran a grocery store. Later, in the early 1700's, they moved to Guilford, Connecticut where they began the long legacy of Towner's in the United States. We even have a Captain Elijah who served with the colonists during the Revolutionary War against England. This would make all the Towner & Miller girls eligible to be "Daughters of the American Revolution"

Interesting isn't it?

Thanks to the efforts of Wanda (Towner) Harris, our first cousin (most of you have met Wanda and Bill at our summer reunions), who put in considerable research in updating the works of two other Towner Geneologists, we now have a two volume history of all the Towners from past to present. Each of our family's has one set. I encourage all of the children and grandchildren to borrow your family's copy and read it. Grandpa & Nammy Towner would be happy knowing you cared. Sometime in the future we will try to come up with the geneology on Nammy's Italian side of the family. I'll bet few of the grandchildren knew that their great-great grandparents came from Italy in the 1800's

MEDICINE CHEST

For the blues, read Psalm 27.

For an empty purse, read Psalm 37.

If discouraged about work, Psalm 128.

If people seem unkind to you, John 15.

If you are losing confidence in people, 1 Corinthians 13.

If you cannot have your own way, James 3.

If you are all out of sorts, Hebrews 12.

For a traveling companion, Psalm 121.

and every day. We see it on the streets and highways as drivers, always in a hurry, disregard the rights of their fellows. We see it in the workplace where charges of harassment abound. We even see it in church where so many leave early to be the first leaving the parking lot.

Why can't we go back to a gentler time where patience and politeness went hand in hand? When did we become so impatient that we forgot the rules of brotherhood.

Can we go back? Sure we can! We must remember that the most important four-letter word in our language is love. And love begets all those other wonderful attributes we should strive for, such as respect, humility, politeness, fraternity, etc.

It was Jesus Christ who reduced the Ten Commandments to only two when he said "Love God first and then your neighbor as yourself".

You cannot love and hate at the same time. And if you love you will respect your neighbors.

Of course, your neighbors are all those around you, both near and far, both here and abroad. The emphasis is on everyone.

And, if you respect your neighbors and their rights, presto!, no more fighting, no more quarrels, no more war. Wouldn't it be wonderful?

And it all begins in the family. Each family. The family is the core unit of life. Respect and love for each family member, including the "Patriarch" is essential. We can teach love, but it is much better to show it. Sometimes it is not easy to love, but if we could change this old world or ours, we must try!

If God loves us, shouldn't we love one another?

GROWING OLD

Lord, thou knowest I am growing older.

Keep me from becoming talkative and possessed with the idea that I must express myself on every subject Release me from the craving to straighten out everyone's affairs.

Keep me from the recital of endless detail. Give me wings to get to the point.

Seal my lips when I am inclined to tell of my aches and pains. They are increasing with the years and my love to speak of them grows sweeter as time goes by.

Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally I may be wrong. Make me thoughtful but not nosy. Helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom & experience it seems a pity not to use it all. But thou knowest, Lord, that I want a few friends at the end.
